

Title: In-Depth Look at the DoD Integrated Lodging Program for DoD and Federal Government Personnel

Abstract: This class is designed at the following experience level for this topic - introductory

In 2015, the Department of Defense launched an Integrated Lodging Program Pilot designed to assist the Department in determining the best approach for providing quality government (DoD) and commercial lodging with the goal of achieving reduced rates, better services, and greater safety and security for the traveler. This session provides an overview of the program pilot, answers supporting travel policy questions, and explains how Duty of Care is incorporated and savings are realized.

Organization: Defense Travel Management Office

Website: www.defensetravel.dod.mil;
<http://www.defensetravel.dod.mil/site/lodging.cfm>

Donna Johnson is a Program Analyst for Defense Travel Management Office. In this role, Ms. Johnson is responsible for day-to-day operation of several commercial travel programs and serves as a key point of contact for federal and private sector travel industry representatives.

Session POC: Donna Johnson, Lt Col USAF (Ret), Program Analyst,
Donna.L.Johnson50.civ@mail.mil