

Title: Transportation Research Board's (TRB) Military Transportation Committee (MTC) Review of Military Transportation Assets/Research

Abstract: This class is designed at the following experience level for this topic – introductory

This session will introduce the capabilities of the Transportation Research Board and what it does and can do to facilitate independent and unbiased research/discussion of issues/problems involving military use of commercial transportation assets. Session will include a review of previous topics addressed at MTC meetings and sponsored sessions at the TRB Annual meeting which attracts over 12,000 participants.

Session will also discuss processes on how to sponsor independent research by the Transportation Research Board on transportation related topics and how to present peer reviewed research papers for presentation at the Annual Meeting and/or The Transportation Research Record.
