

Transportation University
NDTA-USTRANSCOM Fall Meeting

St. Louis Union Station
31 Oct – 3 Nov, 2016

Title: Government Ethics and Interaction with Industry

Abstract:

This course outlines the umbrella of ethics and procurement rules that apply to government employees in their day-to-day duties, especially those affecting interaction with contractors, including contractor employees within the Federal workplace, and industry representatives. Target Audience: US Government employees (including military), contractor employees at USTRANSCOM.

NOTE: This class is designed at the following experience level for this topic – introductory/intermediate.

Organization: USTRANSCOM Staff Judge Advocate

Website: N/A

Instructors:

Colonel Matthew J. Mulbarger, JAG, USAF, has an extensive background in contract, acquisition, and administrative law including government ethics, serving as Chief of the Administrative Law division and senior ethics counselor at USNORTHCOM. His most recent assignment was as Chief, Commercial Litigation Support Center, at AFLOA in Washington DC, where he advised senior USAF and DOD commanders and acquisition officials worldwide on contract dispute prevention and resolution. Colonel Mulbarger reported to USTRANSCOM as the Deputy Staff Judge Advocate in August 2016.

Mr. Richard Gates, Chief of Acquisition Law, Staff Judge Advocate's Office, USTRANSCOM. Mr. Gates, a retired Air Force judge advocate and expert in government contract and acquisition law, supervises a staff of 7 acquisition attorneys as Chief of the Acquisition Law division. He has been with USTRANSCOM since 2007.

richard.w.gates14.civ@mail.mil

Session POC: Lou Rae Langevin, 618-220-4108, lourae.langevin.civ@mail.mil, USTRANSCOM/JA, Scott AFB