

Transportation University
 NDTA-USTRANSCOM Fall Meeting

St. Louis Union Station
 31 Oct – 3 Nov, 2016

Title: Doing Business with MSC

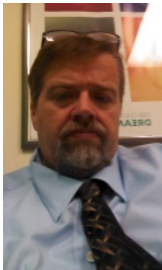

Abstract: Students will learn how to identify and locate specific business opportunities with Military Sealift Command and the Navy – session also provides tips and guidance on preparing proposals for MSC/Navy requirements.

NOTE: This class is designed at the following experience level for this topic – introductory

Organization: Military Sealift Command

Website: <http://www.msc.navy.mil/>

Instructor:

James Kanash

Mr. Kanash has broad management and technical experience in two of the NAVY's ten major buying commands and is considered a subject matter expert in the laws, regulations and policies regarding federal acquisition and small business participation in federal contracts.

Credentials: DAWIA Level III Certified, Member - Defense Acquisition Corps, Appointed - Associate Director of Office of Small Business Programs for Military Sealift Command, Member- NAVY Small Business Council.

Email: james.c.kanash@navy.mil

Rank: Civilian/ GS-14

Session POC: James C. Kanash, MSC Norfolk, james.c.kanash@navy.mil, 757-443-2717, Norfolk, VA.

NDTA University Coordinator – Irvin "Irv" Varkonyi, DC NDTA, ivarkonyi@ndtahq.com, 703-863-9686, Skype IVarkonyi, Fairfax, VA